Community Involvement & Department News

On February 15, 2018, Lebanon officers in partnership with Canaan and Enfield police took part in the state-wide Granite Shield initiative focused on the opioid problem in the Upper Valley.

Officers continue to conduct foot patrols in various locations throughout the city.

Chief Mello continues to do weekly radio interviews with WNTK Wednesday mornings at approximately 8:40.

Lieutenant Stephen J. St. Louis retired on February 9, 2018 after twenty years of service to the City of Lebanon.

Chief Mello continues to attend committee meetings for the Commission to Study Marijuana Legalization, Regulation and Taxation at the New Hampshire Legislative Office Building in Concord. The Commission, of which Chief Mello is an appointed member, was formed as a result of the Marijuana decriminalization legislation that passed in 2017. The Commission meets twice monthly and is expected to issue a report in November of 2018.
